HOMOLOGEO

FAVOUR

I declare that my Father has accepted me in Christ Jesus, the Beloved. Because I am in Christ, I am highly favoured. Like Jesus, I am His beloved son, and He is well pleased with me. I have received the grace of God and so, I am favoured. In Christ, I am God's elect: His special favoured child. The Father loves me as much as He loves Christ Jesus, my big Brother.

The Father's favour constantly surrounds me as a shield from sunrise to sunset. The force of His favour attracts all that pertain to life and godliness to me. It repels whatever is not part of the blessing far away from me. His favour has separated me from the curse.

My favour with God translates into favour with men. I have favour with men that matter. The hearts of kings and men of influence whom God has ordained to play a part of my purpose are in His hands, and He turns their hearts just to favour me. God gives those with whom I have to deal, respect and attention for me. They are captivated by His Spirit and intoxicated by His instructions.

I am pleasing to God; my ways are pleasing to Him. Therefore, He makes even my enemies be at peace with me. There's no limit to whom my Father can use. So, even those who may not like me are used as instruments and channels of God's goodness in my life. I am a son of God and I am led by the Spirit of God. My steps are ordered of the Lord and He takes delight in my ways. Therefore, I am always in the right place and at the right time. I am always where limitless possibilities take place, and I recognize them. I am always found where opportunity and preparation collide. Through the favour of God, doors open before me. His favour causes me to succeed where others have failed. God is unapologetically biased in my favour.

Therefore, I depend upon the grace and favour of God in all I do. I choose not to lean on my own understanding. I acknowledge that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to men of understanding, nor favour to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. I am always where time and chance happen to me. I rest in His favour upon me.

I declare that I enjoy abundant, strategic favour with God and find good understanding in my dealings with men. With each passing day, I experience increasing measures of favour with God and with men.

Thank You Father for the waves of Your favour are crashing all over me and they are carrying me to Your destination for me. Hallelujah!

TESTIMONY

I want to share a testimony of how God delivered me at my place of work on the 1st of February, 2022.

Before leaving for work that day, we had taken our daily confession: Psalm 91 as a family. I got to the office feeling weak that morning. I took permission from my direct supervisor to take a thirty-minute nap at the office upstairs. This was something I have never done before because I had the option of going home, but I felt the nap will help me feel better.

When I got to the office upstairs, I opened the door, turned on the fan, positioned the seat, and dropped my phone. Then I had the urge to sit down for a while after climbing the staircase, however, I heard in my spirit, "Go and ease yourself first". Barely thirty seconds after using the convenience, I heard a loud noise like a gunshot. I waited a little while, then came out only to find out that the secondary school students who were playing football outside had hit the ball directly on the louvre which was exactly at the point I had positioned my seat to take a nap. Two louvers crashed on the table I was to lay my head. My supervisor later said that when they heard the loud noise, they started praying for me. I went down to tell them that I wasn't affected.

God is indeed faithful. How precious is His Amazing love, abounding, rich in goodness for all. Relentless, His grace and mercy are new every day. That was the song that kept resonating within me that period as we prepared for Discovering Treasures. I thank God for this great deliverance. Thank you.

 OPEN AGAPE DAY holds next Sunday, 18th August 2024 after the service. Open Agape Day is where church folks who are in need of clothes, shoes, foodstuff, and household items can come and pick for themselves freely. Members who have items such as foodstuff, clothes and shoes for children and adults (male and female), and household items that are still in good condition should please support those who do not have by bringing in these items to the welfare department in the church office. Please, they should be in good and presentable condition. FFG heads are hereby informed to be present to identify their members because TCC members who are committed in FFGs would be given preference during the distribution.
