

HOMOLOGEO

Season of Flourishing

I declare that I have stepped into a season of flourishing.

In this season, boundaries are being broken. I have stepped into a season where I am developing wings and I am flying. I have stepped into a season where I am breaking forth on every side.

I have stepped into my season of flourishing. It is a kind of flourishing that makes no sense to the natural mind. The guarantee of my flourishing is because I am planted. Because I am planted, I am kept in a place. Because I am planted, I am not moved by every single thing that comes my way.

All over this place, and all around me, green plants are coming up. Multiplied leaves of different species are coming up even where there was dead ground. Species that have not been discovered before are coming up in this place. They are not just coming up naturally, they are coming up supernaturally.

This flourishing is not of man, this flourishing is not of the economy. This flourishing is not even of my finances. This flourishing is of the word of the living God. I am ready for supernatural flourishing. This is the kind of flourishing will defy every single logic, it will defy every single statistic, it will even defy human expectations. Being planted in His soil and His waters have guaranteed my flourishing. I am ready! Lord, I am ready!

I am planted by the Lord. I am planted personally by the hand of the Lord. Those whom the Lord has planted no one can uproot. No storm can uproot, no situation can uproot, no temptation can uproot me. The Holy Spirit Himself will noise my flourishing abroad by Himself.

The time to come up is now and I AM coming up by the hand of the Lord. I am coming up by the Word of the Lord that has come to me that I have stepped into a season of flourishing.

I am righteous and so I flourish like a palm tree. I grow like a cedar in Lebanon. I am planted in the house of the LORD and so I flourish in the courts of my God. I retain fruit bearing ability even in old age. I remain fresh and flourishing.

Turn to your neighbour and prophesy to them. Say to them: "Your season of flourishing is here. See! I can see wings on your back, you are ready to fly! I can see your wings; you are ready to fly!"
Hallelujah!

Q TESTIMONY Q

I came back home from Ekklesia School of Local Church to find out that my baby, had a fever. So, I administered Paracetamol syrup to calm the fever. I woke up in the middle of the night to find out that her body temperature was very high, so I had to administer another dose of Paracetamol. I also soaked a towel with cold water to clean her body all through the night, to bring down her body temperature.

Early in the morning the next day being Sunday, I called my supervisor at to inform him of my baby's health condition. I also informed him that my husband and I would be taking her to the hospital to see a doctor since it was not up to two weeks that she was treated for malaria, yet her temperature had remained high even after administering the Paracetamol syrup and cold-water massages.

When we were about to leave the house for the hospital, my husband changed his mind and said to our baby, you are healed. Let's go to church, your big Mama will call your case today!" So, we came to church.

When Pastor Nkechi came up to preach, she started calling cases and I was very attentive and expectant even when she called a case relating to blood level. This was because my baby's lab result before we treated her of malaria, showed that her blood level was below normal. I said to myself, "This is not her case right now, I want her exact case to be called".

Just as I expected, Pastor called out her case and said, "There is a child here with a stubborn fever", and I quickly raised her to receive her healing. Pastor asked that the child should be brought to her and she rebuked the stubborn fever, and that was it. Before evening that day, her temperature had become normal. We were so excited about the supernatural healing and gave God all the praise!!! Thank you, Pastor, for your sensitivity. We love you!
