TESTIMONY

On the 25th of February 2022, the children and the ladies had gone out for school and work. I was at home to wait for a plumber who had some work to do. When the plumber finished at about 2:00 p.m., I saw him off and locked the gate. I decided to take a nap before the ladies and children would return.

The weather was not friendly at all, everywhere was hot, and I was feeling hot. So, I decided to cool off on the floor because the bed was going to make matters worse. As I lay down, I got up and turned off the fridge, I admitted that it was contributing to the heat too. Then I slept. I don't think I had slept for up to an hour when I felt something was dragging my right leg. I woke up only to discover that I was getting electrocuted by the same fridge I had turned off.

Just then, I heard in my spirit, "You are alone, no one to help you." I told the idiot that it was a big lie. "I have never been alone, I am not alone", I proclaimed. Then I screamed and called on my big brother, "Jesus! Jesus!" I saw immediately, that a big hand, held my leg and pulled it out. I had this cut on my big toe and the next two toes with thick blood flowing out of my toes and experiencing muscle cramps. I ignored all of that and started thanking my Jesus who had just delivered me from instant death. I suddenly remembered Pastor Kech's testimony, how she reached out for her phone, in her challenged state, and recorded her victory there and then, as far as I am concerned. I took a shot of the leg to publish my victory too.

As if this guy is not tired of failing, barely one month after the electrocution, we killed a snake in the premises. At about 8:00 p.m., I had concluded the day's activities with my ladies, and I was heading to my apartment. I heard in my spirit, "Turn on the torch on your phone". There was power, but without hesitating, I turned on the torch on my phone. I had barely taken five steps when I saw a snake. If it were the me of old, I would run and abandon those children, but God has so matured me. Boldness and ideas just rolled in. I remembered the leftover kerosene from the transit home. I baptized the snake with it, first of all. I then called my ladies and they grabbed the weapons they could grab. We got to the spot, but the snake had disappeared.

I said, "Holy Spirit, help us here". We were just sprinkling kerosene at every possible hiding place. Only for us to find the snake stretched on the entrance of my house. I wanted to move and pour the kerosene on the leftover interlock, but a voice told me to pour the kerosene onto my doorway. Just then, the snake crawled out. I poured more kerosene on it to weaken it and we were able to kill it. I just want to thank God who is ever-present and always many steps ahead of us. I thank God for saving my life. I thank God for the undiluted Word preached here by my never tiring Pastors. Whatever boldness or maturity I have attained, it's all by the Word.

Thank you.
