Let the redeemed of the LORD tell their story— those He redeemed from the hand of the foe, those He gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south. Psalms 107:2-3

Some years back, I went for ectopic gestation surgery. A year later, I underwent a serial dilution which resulted in severe pain and bleeding. This went on for a very long time. I got tired of going to the hospital three days a week, so I decided to see a specialist who carried out a scan. When my scan result came out, it revealed that I had a mass in my stomach. The doctor examined it and suggested another surgery to remove it. He said that the mass could be a cancer threat. He referred me to another specialist in Bayelsa state. When I heard the report, I became afraid and I cried from the hospital to my house.

On my way home, I remembered a message preached by Pastor Charles Omofomah during a Broken Wall Healing School. In that message, he said that God is the one who performs surgeries without leaving a scar. I dried my tears immediately and started praising God for performing surgery on me without leaving any scars. The following Thursday being a teaching service, I sowed a seed equivalent of the amount I was to pay the consultant I was supposed to meet in Bayelsa State. I got home after the service with joy, praising God for my healing.

On Saturday that same week, I had an experience that I cannot explain: my body system changed within a minute, I felt a need to use the toilet and when I sat on the toilet seat, I felt something coming out of my body and it dropped into the toilet. I checked the toilet and saw something that I cannot explain its look. That was how the mass came out after several months. The bleeding stopped and my body was restored.
