Let the redeemed of the LORD tell their story— those He redeemed from the hand of the foe, those He gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south. Psalms 107:2-3

Sometime in 2009, I was arrested and taken to prison, where I gave my life to Christ via the teaching of God's Word by our mother, Pastor Nkechi Ene (Mrs.). Although I was on bail, there was nobody to perfect my bail. I was hooked by a message from Pastor Nkechi when she talked about Mephibosheth in LoDebar, and was remembered by King David. I was also inspired by a message titled 'The Characteristics of a Little Child,' which told the story of a little child giving up an expensive toy for a better one. I also decided to give my whole heart to Christ, believing in God for a change in my story.

After another of the pastor's messages that year, From Grass To Grace And Glory (Part 1), I changed my prayer topic based on the teachings and direction I received from the message. All of a sudden, the chief judge of Rivers State came to the prison to release people, and I, who was forgotten by men before, was among the people that was released by the chief judge free of charge. Finally, my release paper was signed on April 22nd. I want to thank God for turning the king's heart to favour me. May all the glory, honour and adoration be unto Him alone that is able to release and discharge the helpless from captivity.

I want to use this medium to thank Mummy Pastor Nkechi Ene on behalf of the Port Harcourt prison inmates for feeding us with the Word of God and with the kind of food we don't dream of eating there. Pastor, you are more than a pastor to the prisoners. I don't know what to call you, but indeed, as a mother, you have really fulfilled scripture in the lives of men, especially me. I have now come to understand my importance as a child of God. The Carpenter's church is the best church that has brought out its treasure and resources to save the souls of people. The most important thing is my spiritual freedom, which I have. Praise be to God!

BELIEVERS' CLASSES

Believers' Classes are foundational classes held simultaneously in The Carpenter's Church on Sundays after the second service. These classes are for everyone. After these classes, a person would know what we believe and have the opportunity to make a decision for membership in TCC.

When you find yourself in a situation and you don't know what to do, get on your knees and thank God!
