Let the redeemed of the LORD tell their story— those He redeemed from the hand of the foe, those He gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south. Psalms 107:2-3

I want to thank God for delivering me from the spirit of chronic gambling that threw me into massive debt and left me contemplating suicide. A while back, I developed a strong desire for gambling. I would borrow funds from friends and family to the point that everyone started suspecting something was wrong with me. Gambling almost turned me into a lunatic and a liar because I'd constantly tell lies just to get money from friends and family. I was heading to self-destruction until, one day, after crying out my lungs in my room, I reached out to a brother in church and narrated my ordeal to him while also crying.

He began to speak positivity into me, reminding me of my place in Christ, using the story of the prodigal son and other biblical stories as a reference. He quickly arranged a counselling session with Pastor Derrick. God used this brother and Pastor Derrick to pull me out of suicidal thoughts. They gave me a thousand and one reasons to live.

Today, even though I am still in significant debt, suicide is never an option again, and, by God's grace, gambling has become a thing of the past.

Thank you, church.
