Open Agape Day

30TH AUGUST 2026

Open Agape Day is where church folks who are in need of clothes, shoes and household items can come and pick for themselves freely. Members who have items such as clothes, shoes, etc. for children both male and female, as well as for adults should please endeavour to support those who do not have by bringing in these items to the Welfare Department in the Church Office. Please, these items should be good and presentable.

Family Connect Group (FCG) heads are hereby informed to be present to identify their members because those who are committed in FCGs would be given preference during the distribution.

Some years ago, due to lack of proper supervision at my business place, I lost everything I owned. I was down to level zero. I was confused, hurting, angry and desolate because I was deeply in debt. Only God's mercy, grace, and love from my immediate family and church family kept me going. I called Pastor Dupe, and she counselled and prayed with me. I also got more of God's Word. Listening to messages like: No Fear Here and Breaking The Backbone Of Debt gave me the strength to hold on and trust God for a fresh start.

I asked God to help me continue to give of whatever I had and not look at my condition at the time, and I saw God in action. Gradually but surely, healing and restoration began taking place. In the season of the lockdown, I made so much sales, much more than before. God's favour came through for me. One of the companies I had paid for goods that had delayed the supply responded and released my goods in the most miraculous way.

God's Word through His servant, Pastor Kech, was alive and sure. My family and I never lacked and had some extra to share. My hallelujah belongs to Jesus. He deserves all my praise.

God is truly big in us in TCC.
